From the Vienna Gazette, dated April 4.

Vienna, April 3.

TO day arriv'd here Captain Gartner Count Stirum's Adjutant, with an exact Account of the late Action between the Bavarians and the Imperialists, in which the Prince of Anspach was kill'd. The Bavarians, to the number of 15500 Men, being advanc'd within 5 Leagues of Ratisbon, took Post on an Eminence on the side of the River Vilz, over against the Place where General Stirum lay with 9000 Men. Both sides began with cannonading each other. The Bavarians pass'd the River thrice to attack the Imperialists in their Camp, but were vigorously repuls'd with great Loss, especially of their Horse, which was expos'd to the Imperial Artillery. It was in this Action that the Prince of Anspach was unfortunately kill'd with about 30 Soldiers. Of the Enemy 200 were kill'd. 200 Hussars who had before deserted to the Bavarians, took this Occasion to come over agen to the Imperialists. The Elector of Bavaria's Calesh was taken by some Hussars who pass'd the River, but was sent back to him agen by Count Stirum.

Letters from Rome, tell us, that the King of Spain has conferr'd on the Duke of Lanti, the Investiture of the Marquisate del Vasto in the Kingdom of Naples: in recompence for the Loss he sustain'd by having his Estate confiscated during the Wars between France and Spain; when he put himself under the Protection of the King of France, who honour'd him with the Order of Knighthood of the Holy Ghost.

They write from our Army in Italy, that the Germans have but 10 or 12000 Foot, and 4000 Horse in that Country, and that they have receiv'd no more than 2000 Recruits. That General has receiv'd Advice, that the Duke of Savoy has order'd his Troops to march immediately to joyn our Army in Italy: They are in Number 10000 Men, well arm'd and disciplin'd. They talk at Court that we shall soon hear of Action in Italy, the Soldiers having receiv'd new Arms, and new Cloaths, and all the Pay that was due to them.
